

We are looking for:

Student referee for the semi-autonomous anti-racism unit

in the AStA 2022/2023

Your Tasks

The student referee for the semi-autonomous anti-racism unit can have the following tasks:

- is the point of contact for people directly or indirectly affected by racism and xenophobia.
- strive to reduce racial discrimination against all students irrespective of their gender
- is a control authority for the university policy, especially for AStA, student parliament and student councils.
- tries to establish a structure at the Technical University of Hamburg, which directly offers support to those directly and indirectly affected by racism.
- support to those directly and indirectly affected by racism. Among other things, this should serve as a platform for networking, communication and exchange of information.
- deals with the decolonization of knowledge, science and teaching.
- organizes events that deal with antiracist educational work.
- exchanges information with other departments and student initiatives at the Hamburg University of Technology and other universities/initiatives.
- reports once a year, in the middle of the term, to the student body to the university in a situation report on racism at the university.
- For this purpose it uses appropriate scientific means.

Expectations

- You should be interested in or passionate about this issue
- You are motivated to research and invest your time in it
- You want to formulate ideas and concepts and present them to make them happen
- You want to change and improve the current situation
- You want to take up responsibility for these matters
- You have time for the mandatory AStA meetings wednesday 2:00 PM and your consultation hours

Your opportunity

Taking action in the AStA is an honorary position, you will be able to help a lot of other students. Being an advisor is a self-affirmative and fulfilling position. It also generates a fascinating and exciting concurrent activity to day to day student life.

Having tasks in the AStA team trains your personal soft skills and communication, to acknowledge matters of all kinds and interest levels and help others is the main function of this position. You will learn about consultation competence, leadership, big scale organizing, negotiation competence and empathy for different situations.

You have the chance to represent the wants of the student body and your general needs and problems you think we face every day. You will have a chance to get to know TUHH in a different light and what happens below the surface student life. If you feel dedicated and want to be involved the validation of making changes for the better give a nice push for your personal development

As an AStA member you will receive a representation allowance for your work and time!

We got your attention? Let's go!