

We are looking for:

Member for a working group to address ethics-related issues and form an ethics committee

Topic

The working group deals with the treatment of ethics-relevant questions and the formation of an ethics commission should serve to pass on the knowledge to a younger generation of students and to work out ideas for the implementation of a civil clause with a corresponding commission. Furthermore, ethics-relevant questions will be discussed.

Expectations

- You should be interested in or passionate about this issue
- You are motivated to research about it
- You are sensitized for the topic
- You are interested in developing constructive strategies for solving the problem
- You want to change and improve the current situation
- Experience with student committees is useful, but not necessarily necessary

Positives

Taking action in a working group is an honorary position, you will learn a lot, get to know new people interested in the same topic and stand up for the interests of your fellow students.
